

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1884.

Five Dollars to One.

Bets were made the first of the week between two prominent lumbermen as follows: $100 that Cleveland carries New York; $100 that the man who carries New York is the next President; and $50 that the Democrat wins all the bets. —Democrat.

The above shows that the Republican lumberman had sand enough to bet at the great odds of $5 to $1, about the least odds at which Republicans can get bets. The Democrat cannot in any event lose more than $50, while the Republican, should Cleveland carry New York and be elected President would lose the $250. A Democrat when he takes bets at such odds, openly declares his belief that Cleveland has but slim chances in the Presidential race and the fact that they will only take chances at such odds is an admission that there is but little hope for Grover, in the estimation of Democrats who claim to be posted.

The Episcopalians in Detroit.

The Ninth Congress of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States met last Tuesday in Detroit.

It opened by a Communion Service at St. Pauls church at 10:30 a. m., at which service the Rev. H. C. Potter late rector of Grace church New York, but now the active Bishop of that city preached the sermon.

At the close of that service the congress adjourned to Whitney's Opera House where the debates will continue until to-morrow (Friday) evening.

Many of the leading minds of that church: men of widely different views, including four or five Bishops and such Presbyters as Phillip Brooks, of Boston; R. Heber Newton, of New York; Edwin Harwood, of New Haven; and John H. Hopkins, of Pennsylvania, will be present and debate a number of the vital questions of the day. Among the topics to be presented we note the following: "The relations of authority and conscience," "Moral Education in public schools," "Is our civilization just to Workingmen?" "Agnosticism," and others.

The ability and learning of the appointed writers and speakers give promise of great interest to the occasion.

Rev. J. M. Curtis, rector of St. James' church left on the Monday morning train to be present and enjoy the discussion of the several interesting and important subjects.

Personal.

O. E. Bartlett, of Bay City, was in town Tuesday.

Henry Taylor, of Mackinaw City spent Tuesday in town.

Hugh Riley, night operator at Mackinaw City was in Cheboygan yesterday.

A. R. Dodge and family left for their new home in Virginia Wednesday morning.

Mrs. John R. Clark left Sunday night to spend the winter with her brother in Monroe.

Prof. Eugene Lyons was over Tuesday and helped the band furnish wind for the Butler demonstration.

Ivan Holden, baker at Taggart's bakery has gone home to Perry, Iowa, where he has secured a good situation.

Samuel Rindskoff, brother of Henry and Will, proprietors of the Star Clothing House, spent Sunday in Cheboygan.

Bellant & Gallagher's new store, on the east side, will be opened the last of this week. Their new stock is expected Thursday on the City of Mackinaw.

Robert Horne and family of Rogers City, were among the passengers on the Atlantic who came up Tuesday to hear Butler. They were greatly disappointed at having to leave before the General arrived.

Rev. Northrup, the new pastor of the M. E. church, occupied the pulpit both morning and evening, good audiences greeting him on both occasions. He made a very favorable impression. He departed the first of the week to be absent from his charge two Sabbaths, during which time he expects to take unto himself a wife. The citizens generally will join with his charge in giving a hearty welcome to the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Noye, of Buffalo, arrived in Cheboygan Friday evening for a visit with their son, Charles E. Mould. Mr. Noye is the gentleman who presented the bell to St. James' church. He expects to spend a few weeks in this section. Next week he and Mr. Mould intend spending a few days in Presque Isle county hunting deer. He is of the opinion that Grover Cleveland will be beaten in his own county bad, and that the state of New York will go for Blaine by a large majority.

MARINE.

—The Ste. Marie started out last Thursday morning but had to turn back on account of the storm, and remained all day.

—The Champlain had the repairs on her boiler completed, and sailed for Chicago last Thursday.

—The schooner Charles E. Wyman arrived from Chicago Monday noon, having made the run from that city in thirty-nine hours. She loaded lumber from W. S. Humphrey for Chicago.

—The Flora did not put in an appearance last week. The storm put her so far behind that she turned around at Rogers City and went back.

—The propeller Geo. M. Colwell coaled up at W. & A. McArthur's dock Wednesday morning. She and consorts were bound down with lumber.

—The tug Quail was in port yesterday, windbound. She was bound down with a tow of schooners.

—The propeller Messenger left Chicago yesterday morning, but had to run back on account of the gale.

—The Canadian schooner Arabia, bound to Midland with a cargo of corn from Chicago, sunk at the entrance of Georgian Bay Sunday morning. The Arabia was an old canal, and was insured for $4,000, all she was worth.

—The Lawrence arrived Tuesday forenoon. Owing to the disabling of the Champlain, causing her to lose a trip, the Lawrence called at several ports not on her regular list of stopping points, and consequently got a day behind time.

—The Van Raalte arrived down from the Sault yesterday noon. They report it quite rough on Lake Huron yesterday forenoon.

—The City of Cleveland was right on time yesterday morning, notwithstanding the severe gale.

—The schooner Nalad arrived Sunday, loaded lumber from the Cheboygan Lumber company, and cleared yesterday for Chicago.

—The Atlantic arrived up early Tuesday morning, and called in, bound down, in the afternoon.

—The steambarge Geo. King arrived Monday, took on a portion of her cargo in the river and is at Duncan City today completing her load of lumber and lath for Tonawanda.

—The schooner F. M. Knapp sailed Saturday evening with lumber for Toledo, Ohio.

—The City of Mackinac was late arriving Thursday of last week. The blow delayed her.

—A telegram was received by Capt. Kirtland yesterday to send the Leviathan to the relief of the schooner Bailey ashore at Gills Pier, Lake Michigan, north of Leland. The Leviathan left early this morning Captain Kirtland going along.
